We presume there will be very many to call us barbarians, and "stupid monstrosities," when we declare that there is altogether too much time wasted at the piano. It is so fashionable and universal for ladies to spend several years his "situation" behind him in one of the dramming and thamping on the piano that it is well nigh treason for even news papers to say aught against it. But however unpopular the idea may be, we cannot but feel that there is too much absurd throwing away of time at the piano; and we shall speak plainly our reasons for such erratic beleif.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY .- An invention has recently been patented for making glass from the native ore, the scilicate of iron, which exists in great abundance in different parts of the world. The columnar basaltic rock of the Palisades, on the Hudson river, and the famous Giant's Causeway, in Ireland, are formations of this ore in a crystalized and hence opaque condition. A factory at Newburgh, N. Y., has been started, to utilize this ore the newly discovered process, and it turning out ware of unequaled cheapness and toughness. Nails may be driv-en into solid timber with quart bottles of this manufacture, without risk of breaking. The cheapness with which glass may be made in this way will cause it to be bro't into a variety of new uses. Common window glass can be produced at prices greatly below present cost; but whether the finer qualities of glass can be made in this way remains to be de: termined. The discovery is one of great importance, and is the work of Ameri-

Suspend an acorn by a cotton thread so as to nearly touch the water in a glass vessel, (a hyacinth glass is perhaps the best,) set upon the window or mantle, and let it remain there for eight or ten weeks, more or less, without being interfered with, except to supply the evaporation of the water, and the acora will burst, and as it throws a root down into the water, a sprout or stem will be sent upward, throwing out beautiful little green leaves ; thus giving you an oak tree, in full health within your parlor.
